LLOYD LIBRARY & MUSEUM

We'll miss our pawpaws, but soon it will be winter, the perfect time of year to celebrate houseplants! From poinsettias to cacti, indoor greenery brings joy, tranquility, and a pop of color to our homes. Stay tuned for an all-new program schedule to accompany our new exhibition, Welcome to My Jungle!

Final Week for Lore of the Pawpaw!

Still haven't seen The Lore of the Pawpaw exhibition? Or maybe you have a friend or family member who's curious about this fascinating native fruit? Stop in through Friday, November 22, for the final run of this popular photographic exhibit showcasing the pawpaw and its dedicated growers.

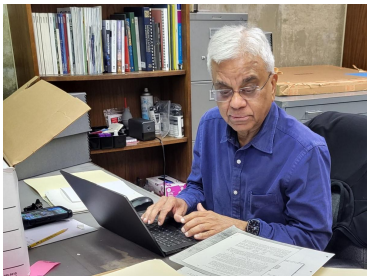

Welcome to My Jungle Opening Reception

When: Friday, December 13, 5-7 p.m.
Where: Lloyd Library

Join us for the opening of the Lloyd's newest exhibition! As the cold moves in, Welcome to My Jungle: In-door Plants brings the outside indoors and examines our enduring interest in houseplants and their benefits, from eco-sustainability to physical and mental health. Learn about the historic trends like British fern fever, German cactus curiosity, and American midcentury decorating chic. Refreshments. Free and open to the public.

Meet Kris Ramprasad

We'd like to introduce our archives intern, Kris Ramprasad, M.D., M.A. A recent graduate of the University of Cincinnati's history graduate program, Kris is reviewing, recording, and filing medical articles that were once uploaded to the Natural Products Alert Database (NAPRAlert.) This will allow future researchers to utilize a master list of these hard-to-find articles based on natural product research. Thanks to Kris for all his hard work on this project!

In this season of giving thanks, we hope you will include the Lloyd in your year-end philanthropy.
